Off the scale fun

Boundless adventure starts here

For over a decade, Boundless has been getting Worcestershire's children outdoors, muddy and proud of themselves. Our two centres sit in the middle of private woodlands, pupils get the real thing: fresh air, challenge and memories that outlasts the school photo.

Trusted

Trust is at the heart of Boundless. Our experienced instructors help children get familiar with the equipment, trust their judgement, and learn to depend on each other.

Passionate

Our team love their jobs, and it shows. We gently encourage every child to reach their full potential, helping them to see what they are capable of.

Nurturing

We take the time to help children understand the world around them and the people they share it with, building respect for the outdoors.

Inspiring

Children rarely remember the exact details of a lesson, but they never forget how it felt when someone made learning fun. That's what we do best at Boundless: we create the memories that linger long after the mud has washed off.

“Not just for the children”

Swap the staff room for a woodland classroom at Boundless. Both indoor and outdoor space is available for training days, INSET sessions and away days, plus The Canopy, our new dining space at treetop height is now open at Malvern.

Safety first

Every instructor at Boundless is enhanced DBS checked, fully qualified and outdoor first aid trained. We hold an AALA Licence and quality marks from Adventure Mark, LOtC and AHOEC Gold, so you can be assured knowing every activity is led by a qualified and experienced team member.

“We appreciate everything you did during our stay and as a result the children had the best time ever. I would come to you whatever the weather”.

Mr Stokes, St Peters Academy

Information for parents

Every member of staff a child meets at Boundless, from the instructor leading high ropes to the person serving dinner, is enhanced DBS checked and trained to work with children away from home. Our instructors hold nationally recognised qualifications from their sport's own governing body, specific to the activity they lead.

- Mountain Leader (Summer)
- Canoe Touring Leader
- Climbing Wall Leader
- ERCA Ropes Course Instructor
- RoSPA PPE Inspector
- Archery GB Leader (Level 1)
- Bushcraft Leader

Finding their feet

Every child can move at their own pace, whilst our instructors adjust on the spot, whether that's a little nudge for the cautious one or a bit more to chew on for the child who's already asking what's next.

Accessibility and SEND

From pre-planning calls to on-the-day adjustments, we adapt activities, pace and environment so every one of your children can take part safely and confidently.

Meal times at Boundless

Meals happen in The Canopy, our new dining space at treetop height at Malvern. Floor to ceiling glass and woodland outside, so even a quick lunch comes with a view worth looking up for. At Bell Heath, the whole group gathers in our Hall, the beating heart of the centre.

Both spaces exist for the same reason: to bring your children back together to relive the best bits of the day. Our kitchen team plan with you to understand and cater for any allergies, intolerances or specific dietary needs.

“The Boundless chef was so flexible and sent menus to us in advance so parents can pre-order meals, which is incredibly reassuring for our families.”

Ms Cynthia May, Sellyoak Trust School

Sleeping over at Boundless

Both our sites sit within private and peaceful woodland and every stay is sole occupancy so your group has the whole space to themselves. Teachers can decide how to organise the children's sleeping arrangements to suit school policy and each child's individual needs.

Bell Heath has room for up to 77 children and staff across our main house, plus extra space on the camp site. In the main block there is a shared common room and 77 beds in small group dormitories, easy for staff to keep watch through the night. We also have our camp site with large 10-person tents, the perfect introduction to sleeping under the stars. Staff have their own tent too, so there's always an adult close by overnight.

Our Malvern centre has room for up to 118 children and staff split across three separate areas. In our South block there are 56 beds across ten rooms, from cosy bedrooms to larger dorms. The North block there is 44 beds across two floors with shared bathrooms; it also has its own common room and skittles alley for evenings in. A member of staff stays on the same floor overnight. Finally, there is the chalet which sleeps up to 19 across four small rooms, with step-free access, a disabled toilet and shower facilities.

“Our Year 11 GCSE PE students had a fantastic time carrying out Orienteering and Climbing at Boundless Outdoors Centre, this was mainly down to the encouragement, advice and support they received from the instructors”

Mr C. Miller, Director of Sport, Vandyke Upper School

Curriculum days

At Malvern, 500 million years of geological history sit right on your doorstep. Fossil hunting, Iron Age battles and Victorian medicine bring history to life, with a bit more mud on their boots than the classroom allows.

At Bell Heath, STEM and teamwork take centre stage. Bushcraft, orienteering and low ropes turn PSHE and geography into something pupils do, not just learn.

Secondary school activities

Boundless is the perfect way to start the new school year. Getting muddy, getting lost, and laughing at each other's dodgy zip wire landings turns strangers into firm friends faster than any classroom can.

DofE: Our Malvern and Bell Heath sites make ideal testing ground for Bronze expeditions.

Wellbeing and personal development: Team building challenges to canoe river trips, each one a chance for pupils to discover something new about themselves.
